goals. If awarded, I will work my might to achieve the better.

Not to forget that the same pupils/students who will need the education support from different backgrounds should be supported as you will do to me I will also do to others. Thanks to all who are members of KSF international for the great things they do and raising funds for students.

I do promise that I will attend your ceremonies and receptions as well as using my picture etc without compensation. I also understand that I will write a letter of thanks to KSF
